

A caring volunteer provides comfort!

All who are genuinely concerned in addressing the needs of abused, stray, abandoned and homeless animals must seek ways, through contributing, volunteering and otherwise supporting VVHS programs, to provide a better present and future for as many animals as possible. So much needs to be done! It requires commitment from each of us to contribute however we can. The need is ongoing and so must be our commitment. Let's not forget the animals that are counting on each of us to help make a difference.
